WHITE WHALES WOLGAST IN TEN-ROUND MILWAUKEE GO

Chicago Lightweight Wins Tough Battle From Ex-Champion of the Class Before a Crowd of 4,000 Fight Fans.

Milwaukee, Wis., Dec. 20.—Ad Wolgast can't claim the 133-pound championship after today. The famous Dutchman from Cadillac took a punching from Charlie White, the Chicago boy, through ten rounds of fierce milling in Frank Mulken's Hippodrome arena. Wolgast was not the Wolgast of old. He was good, but not good enough. At the conclusion he was weary and weak. He looked disgusted with himself as he went to his corner, and his seconds wiped his bleeding mouth.

No, Ad Wolgast won't come back. He is through as a champion, but there's many a lightweight he still can lick. The battle was so fierce it figuratively stood the 4,000 folks present on their heads. It was the finest combat of the season in this boxing town.

Wolgast fought as he has always fought. He pressed White continually under cover of his famous crouch and turtle back guard of gloves and elbows. When he got close he cut loose invariably with his terrible left and occasionally with an overhand right.

White was bothered somewhat by the Wolgast method at the start, but he soon solved the mystery. Then he started hooking with both his hands and hitting viciously. He popped Ad on the right ear ten times a round with the left, jammed up his right eye with the same and slashed his mouth with the right.

The Chicago boy had but one bad round, the sixth. Here Wolgast nailed him in the face with a left that brought a stream of blood from both mouth and nose. White looked tired and scared as he went to his corner. But he came back gamely and won with a comfortable margin to spare. In fact we think White was so much the better man at the finish that his timidity prevented his scoring a more decisive victory. Wolgast, to those who watched him closely, showed signs of being ready to drop. He was "in," as the ring birds say. White, with his extreme caution, refused to step in and try to finish him. He hurt Ad badly early in the round and had the Wildcat doing the "fighter's dance" to keep his wits about him.

BURNS IS MAKING BOXER OF PELKEY

Tommy Says He Is Teaching Protege to Time His Wallops.

San Francisco, Dec. 20.—Tommy Burns, the one-time champion of the world, who is here directing the training of Arthur Pelkey for the latter's New Year's bout with Gunboat Smith, claims to have completely remodeled his protegee's system of fighting.

It has taken Tommy six months, according to his own telling, to transform Arthur from a swinger into a straight hitter, and the results achieved have justified the time and pains devoted to the undertaking.

The strangest thing about it all is that Burns, after his years and years of service both as a ring man and a coach, should consider the transmutation of Arthur Pelkey's boxing complete and not be troubled with fears of a reversion to the old order of things.

Some people will tell you that the task of teaching an old dog new tricks is not a whit more hopeless than trying to get a fighter who has become set in his actions to adopt a new style of warfare.

BRIEF BITS OF SPORT.

Jackson, Mich., Dec. 20.—Tommy Page of Chicago was outpointed by Billy Shaughnessy of Jackson in a fast ten-round bout last night.

Kankakee, Ill., Dec. 20.—The St. Victor basketball team won its first game of the season yesterday by defeating the Cahery A. C. 35 to 13.

Fond du Lac, Wis., Dec. 20.—"Young" Mahoney of Racine administered a terrific beating to Billy Fraser of Oshkosh in ten rounds here last night.

Philadelphia, Pa., Dec. 20.—"Happy" Davis, the Southwark featherweight, won from Harry Diamond in a fast six-round bout at the Broadway A. C. last night.

Kansas City, Mo., Dec. 20.—Charles Weston won the third bout of his 600 point pocket billiard match with John Kling last night by the score of 177 to 150. The total score for the three night's play is 450 to 349 in favor of Kling.

New York, Dec. 20.—"A first class boxer with a stinging punch, but not a whip." Such was the decision of theastic fans who saw Jack "Sapper" O'Neil outpoint Fred Halsband in a ten-round bout last night. It was O'Neil's first bout in America.

GOLFERS START NEW CLUB

Chesterfield Country Club Buys Fifty Acres at Glen Ellyn.

Fifty acres of ground have been purchased at Glen Ellyn for the Chesterfield Country club. This land is to be used for the clubhouse, nine-hole golf course, and the various amusements usual to a country club. The new organization has been formed to provide club benefits to a larger number of people than is usual and at much less cost.

The officers are as follows: President, George W. Diller, assistant statistician of the Santa Fe railway; first vice president, Thomas H. Hibbs, secretary Vicecor Chemical Works; second vice president, Albert S. Busch, president Albert S. Busch & Co.; secretary, Frank D. Follansbee of Frank D. Follansbee; treasurer, Joseph D. McChesney, cashier Glen Ellyn State bank. Directors—Peter M. Hoffman, Cook county coroner; Lester L. Jones, manager Chicago Journal; Edwin C. Blakeley, president of Sullivan-Blakeley Printing company; Judge D. H. Gregg, J. W. Rudy, J. C. Cory, L. C. Huntley, C. Kneppel, C. C. Robinson, B. M. Wilmot, P. Sarsfield Dunne, Aaron B. Dikeman, C. T. Williams.

Plans already have been made for the clubhouse and garage and the golf course has been surveyed. The clubhouse will provide for swimming, dancing, bowling, billiards and various other amusements. It is expected the club will be ready for occupancy by June 1.

The grounds are nearly 300 feet higher than Chicago, and as the surface is rolling they will make a fine golf course on which will be found a number of natural hazards. The property is within easy walking distance of the main stations of the Elgin-Aurora electric and Northwestern roads.

JACK JOHNSON HISSIED IN TEN ROUND FIGHT

Paris, Dec. 20.—Jack Johnson, colored heavyweight champion of the world, outpointed Jim Johnson, a second rater, last night in a ten-round bout. The contest was decidedly far-cal throughout, and the spectators showed their disapproval by hooting and hissing the two fighters.

In the fifth round the champion claimed he had injured his right arm, but continued to fight. Jack looked to be holding fat and altogether in very poor condition. Neither man showed any speed or skill at any period. Jack, however, was undeniably superior in generalship and skill to his practically unknown opponent.

BATTING MARK PREVENTS FINE

The batting average of Charles Schramm, 30 years old, saved him from a fine yesterday when he was arraigned before Municipal Judge Sullivan in the Hyde Park court, Chicago, on a charge of stealing an overcoat. When the evidence was all in the judge turned to Schramm.

"What is your business?" he asked. "I am a shortstop in the Southern Michigan league, your honor, and I have a good record," was the reply.

"What is your batting average?" inquired the judge.

"Two hundred and eighty-seven," announced Schramm with pride.

"Discharged. You can't be very bad with a batting average like that," decreed the court.

EBBETS LEAVES WITH CHECK

New York, Dec. 20.—Charles H. Ebbets, president of the Brooklyn Baseball club, left for Cincinnati today to close the deal for Shortstop Joe Tinker. Ebbets carried with him a check for $15,000, the purchase price less the $10,000 bonus for Tinker, which the Brooklyn club maintains it is entitled to hold until the player signs a contract with Brooklyn.

COBB INVENTS NEW BALL BAT

New York, Dec. 20.—Ty Cobb has turned inventor. The slugging outfielder of the Detroit Tigers has made a bat which will do away with the sting—not that which is brought upon the pitcher when Ty peels off a base hit, but the sting which goes through the batter's hands when the bat and ball meet.

Cobb's new bat has a thin layer of cork at the handle. This prevents the bat from slipping and if successful will do away with the present method of winding tape.

HARRIS LOSES CASE AND CASH

Milwaukee, Wis., Dec. 20.—Samuel Harris of Baltimore, manager of Kid Williams, has lost his case before the state boxing commission for $300, which he charged was held back by a Milwaukee club before which his protegee boxed recently. The commission has ruled that the money was a forfeit for the appearance of Williams on December 19, and that he has violated the contract.

HARVARD CALLS OFF BOAT RACE

Cambridge, Mass., Dec. 20.—Captain Quentin Reynolds today confirmed the report that there was little likelihood of the Crimmon and Princeton meeting on the water next spring.

"Harvard will have but two big races on the water in the spring," said Reynolds. "That is the reason we declined Princeton's invitation. When Harvard rowed Princeton here last year it was stipulated that such a race would not obligate Harvard to row a return race at Princeton."

EDDIE CAMPI MTTCHED

Los Angeles, Cal., Dec. 20.—Eddie Campi of San Francisco and "Kid" Williams, the Baltimore bantamweight, were matched today to fight a twenty-round bout here on February 13.
